Both come from musical families and have years of performing experience. Stephanie's experience comes from participating in competitions and showcases, performing for local events, and her studies at Berklee College of Music where she attended a 5- week performance program and a performance workshop "Berklee in LA." She is now completing her Master's Certificate in Music Business and Technology through Berklee online. Robbie's experience comes from years as the drummer/songwriter/arranger of NJ Band The Miasmics. He also plays bass guitar in the NJ Rock band The Third Degree with his brother Nick other rockers from Verona/Caldwell. and He is a Music Education major at William Paterson University and teaches drum lessons. After months of writing, the two had enough material for a set and decided to expand their duo to a full band. They began working with their current bandmates (Aleks - a French Horn masters holding performer from the Manhattan School of Music, Shooby - Former member of The Miasmics and who is currently persuing his degree in Jazz performance from Mason Gross @ Rutgers University, Chris - Former member of The Miasmics and constant performer - currently with The All New Cheap Moves., and Eric - has a jazz performance degree from Mason Gross @ Rutgers University as well as performs with the amazing jam band New Bru), all amazing, experienced musicians, on the original material and select cover songs.
