There's something for everyone on this cd: Country/Popular&Traditional, Jazz, Gospel/Blues 15 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Pop, JAZZ: Jazz Vocals Details: MUSIC BACKGROUND - Play piano (started lessons at a very early age) - Play guitar - Teach piano MUSICAL INFLUENCES - The Beatles made a huge impact on me from the beginning. - Soul music and R&B, along with the Rolling Stones were my musical tastes in high school. - Later years: Eagles, America, Jackson Browne, Linda Ronstadt - Now, I have branched out into the country genre with Dixie Chicks, George Strait, Faith Hill, and Martina McBride as favorites. - Lately, Norah Jones has been a big influence. My musical tastes are multi-genre which carries through in my songwriting. "The Day," my 4th CD, is a perfect example of this. AWARDS I was awarded a Regional Artist Grant from the United Arts Council of Raleigh and Wake County to help fund "The Day." OTHER CDs - She's Got It Bad - Restless Angel - Huckleberry Mountain "THE DAY" OVERVIEW Songwriter Sue Williamson's latest CD, "The Day" is a collection of multi-genre songs that offers something for everyone. From the Norah Jones style title track "The Day," to the country pop ballad "Untie the Knot in My Heart," a la Faith Hill, to the gospel song "I'm Coming Home," to a Merle Haggard sounding "For You and Me"....it all adds up to a fun and easy listening album. Williamson has written, recorded, and produced this project with contributions from a who's who list of musicians and vocalists in the Raleigh/Chapel Hill, North Carolina area. Multi-talented composer and arranger Jason Graves is co-producer.
