BLUES: Blues Vocals, BLUES: Jazzy Blues Details:

My music is about the way that I embrace life; with spontaneity and emotion; its all about a connection says Ross Bon when describing his musical evolution. Ross possesses a distinctive voice you remember long after the song has ended; penetrating your soul with an expressive style, driven with passion and a sense of charisma. Plus Bons live performances across the country have earned him and the Mighty Blue Kings rave reviews; creating a celebration of sound, sweat and manic energy; bringing their fans to a point of frenzy, where they cant help but to jump up and join Ross on his live ride. In 95, Ross Bons Mighty Blue Kings made their debut performance opening for the late Junior Wells at Buddy Guys legends in Chicago; and followed up with a weekly residence at the Chicago jazz club, The Green Mill. The evening became legendary, selling out for two straight years with die-hard fans willing to stand in-line outside, around the block, in sub-zero temperatures! Bon recalls with a smile, People came out to sweat, laugh and have a good time with each other, it was fantastic! The Chicago Sun Times Lloyd Sachs noted, Its been a while since a musician has generated the kind of buzz
