Steal-your-heart vocals, break-your-heart lyrics, stop-your-heart melodies and harmonies, in three-minute guitar-pop-rock gems. 11 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Amy Holloway is an exciting and beautiful young vocalist whose debut CD "Find My Own Way" was written and produced by Bay Area guitarist Al Begley. With a spirited girl-power message enhanced by sparkling Beatle-esque harmonies, her debut CD brings a unique brand of pop sunshine to the dark periods we may encounter while we try to find our own way. This major step forward in Amy's musical career continues a progression that began when she was the top soloist in her school choir, then a star in vocal chorus groups, and later a standout in the recording studio where some of the top hip-hop production teams in San Jose started using her to nail down the hooks on their best tracks. Nestled in between the spirited but lightweight guitar-pop world of Hillary Duff, and the angsty, frenetic world of emo/screamo, the songs on this CD find a place for melodic, accessible music that is both edgy and catchy, both mature and innocent.
