CLASSICAL: Chamber Music, CLASSICAL: Twentieth Century Details: Born in Dallas, Texas, Dustin Manuel was raised in the rich musical tradition that southern churches are known for. In this environment, he learned music and became a church musician at the early age of 12. He has played at a variety of churches, and thus has knowledge of many different forms of Christian worship. Using this experience, he was able to learn to score his compositions for ensembles at age 15. He has composed scores for several films, had performed concert works with ensembles around the United States, and is an active member of the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers. People who are interested in Elton John Franz Schubert Arnold Schnberg should consider this download.
