Melodic explorations of spiritual themes, accompanied by rich, eclectic musical textures 11 MP3 Songs
EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: Fred Bogert has spent over three decades enjoying many facets of success as a producer, composer and performer. He is a gifted multi-instrumentalist and vocalist whose intensity of musical expression has captured the attention of audiences of all kinds throughout his active performing career. Meanwhile, in his ten years on Nashville's Music Row, Mr. Bogert produced and engineered over three thousand recordings at his Studio C and Historic RCA Studio B locations. His uncanny ability to arrange and orchestrate attracted clients like Jorma Kaukonen, Vassar Clements, David Amram, John McEuen, David Carradine and, well, the list goes on! Fred produced, cowrote, engineered, played and sang on the GRAMMY nominated inFINity album of Trout Fishing in America in 2001, and the GRAMMY nominated "Best Fishes" CD in 2004. In April of 2003 Mr. Bogert joined Trout Fishing in America in concert with the Austin Symphony Orchestra in a concert that featured his symphonic arrangements. An outrageously talented musician, Fred continues to share his years of performing experience with audiences throughout the United States. As of 2003, there are three CD albums; "Come Share My Joy", "Life in the Briarpatch", and "Dreamspeak", that feature Fred's performance of his own songs. They are all available at chromerecords.com.
