"Les Williams" Les Williams was born and raised in The Bluegrass State of Kentucky, today he lives with his wife in the Nashville area. Les got his first guitar at the age of 12, and formed his first band at sixteen. He has performed in nightclubs, bars, private parties, and special events since the early eighties. He played lead guitar for the Gatlin Brothers when they performed at West Shore Community Collage in Northern Michigan. He kept traveling the circuit until he played with The Ralph Emery morning Show in Nashville, Tennessee. He was the lead guitar for several seasons. Les also performed at the Opryland Theme Park which the Ralph Emery show was filmed. Les enjoy singing gospel and country. This year he has completed two gospel albums and one country album. Les and his wife have traveled all over the country performing mostly in the South to his wonderful fan. You can find his music in specialty stores and at all his performances. As you travel through the South, you can hear some of his recordings played occasionally on jukeboxes and radio station. All his stage costumes are designed and sewn by his wife "Katie". She has "state of the art" sewing machines and equipment that truly enhances his stage appearance. HG Records picked Les up in 1999 and has been like a family. HG and Les are looking forward to entertaining you. HG Records
