Tammy Sacramento, California (21st Century Blues) Upbeat and unique, soulful sound Has the distinction of being both very professional and somewhat original at the same time; definitely off the beaten track, for which I have a lot of respect; I also appreciate that the lyrics and clear and distinguishable; guitar sound is very unique and playing is pro; very retro-r b/jazzy vibe to it; cool, Reviewed by: pablo brazil from Los Angeles, California (21st Century Blues) Tight blues based cd. recording is really good, I really dig the lead guitars and the drums. Performance sounded real tight. Great recording. decently arranged tracks, good running time, cool grooves. tight tracks !!!!! Extra Credit: Guitars, Production Reviewed by: pillias Mount Pleasant, Michigan (21st Century Blues) LaMountain sings with a deep, crooning vocal style reminiscent at times of Elvis. His tracks are warm and bluesy with some nice guitar playing. (Reviewed by Jesse T.)
