A tasty adrenalized brew of no-filler powerful and rocking sharply crafted pop. At every turn, armies of chiming 12 strings stride confidently and rough-and-tumble incendiary melodies and vocals that can make the earth move. 14 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, POP: Beatles-pop Details: The Model Rockets are an classic and colorful band fronted by John Ramberg, who are now into their 3rd release, which Not Lame proudly sets forth for complete and total public consumption. This release features the production and performance talents of Kurt Bloch(Young Fresh Fellows) and Scott McCaughey (Minus 5, REM) on all the tracks and it's about as archetypally classic as this sort of thing goes! "Tell The Kids" is a tasty adrenalized brew of no-filler powerful and rocking sharply crafted pop. At every turn, armies of chiming 12 strings stride confidently and rough-and-tumble incendiary melodies and vocals that can make the earth move. No duds here, sorry--the energy never dissipates and cheery bright hooks are as relentless as they are obvious! The Model Rockets put forth a bowl-filled display of striking and melodious enjoyment -- You'll hear clear mirror reflections of the bands' influences but never quite be able to wrap your finger around who they are exactly because Ramberg and company slice-and- dice it fresher and with more gusto that only well-seasoned veterans can pull off. Fans of SWAG will love this slab 'o melodic fun, as well! "Ever wonder what the dB's would sound like crossed with the Young Fresh Fellows? Like your guitar-pop with a sense of humor and more than a dash of whimsy? If so, the MR should be your thang, friends. Armed with 14 tunes that are across-the-board wonderful....this is simply stunning...it's the perfect summertime album as well as one of the finest pop records in recent memory"- Goldmine.
