And, This music draws me to it again and again and again, each time giving me a richer experience. Pheos music is a response to the ever changing pace of life with its strain and stress by leading people into their deeper levels of mind where peace, calm, and a place above the daily grind can be found. Pheo Rose has produced a musical series to help a listener enter into the deeper mind/soul: Soul Bridge is an easy listening/relaxing cd that also introduces how to use the stereo left and right to follow the musical instruments as a focus of meditation. Soul Pulses, takes some of the same pieces but develops them in length and complexity so that the person can be led even deeper into peace and stillness. Unique to Soul Pulses is that this cd begins with slow and centering music pieces and builds in pulse and rhythm to bring a low energy level to vibrate energy. Soul Yoga, is a musical form of yoga, that is a favorite of yoga practioners as well as people who cannot taken on physical yoga but want the benefits. The music stimulates and energizes the inner self while bringing centeredness and peace. The final album in this unique music series is Inner Universe, which, like all of Pheos music can be enjoyed, caressed by, and also used as the culmination of the music series leading the listening into their inner universe. Suffering from any form deserves compassion and caress, and Pheo has produced a series of music cds beautifully lyrical as well as soothing and consoling. Giving Life, are for the times when low energy and depression can be lifted by this music. Soft Light, are for the times when there is no release from the suffering that can almost overwhelm a person. The music is a loving presence acknowledging and responding to the suffering. Compassions Caress, is very much its name, and musically reaches to tend and hold. Emerging Through the Suffering, is 72 minutes that helps a person who is ready to take on the inner struggles and emerge to a new place of being. By Popular Demand from those who have purchased Pheo Roses four consoling and soothing cds, Peace Bringer: Lullabies for All Ages has been produced. Beginning with a soft improvisation of Twinkle Twinkle Little Star the musical pieces are original soft lullabies to help relax one into rest. All these cds are used in hospitals, hospices, children centers, assisted living centers, and by various organizations that tend to suffering. Healing Earth Life, blends the leading into deeper mind/soul style with the tending to suffering to offer a musical progression/prayer for the healing and rejuvenation of all natural and human life on this miraculous planet. The music in itself is beautiful, and those who deeply enter into each piece will find their own consciousness being raised, and in that be part of the global raising of consciousness to the restoration and revitalization that all life on this planet so needs.
