OUTRAGEOUS ON THE EDGE SATIRE OF COUNTRY MUSIC RADIO-WARNING. SEX, VIOLENCE, SEMI-NAKED WOMEN, "C&W ON CRACK." 26 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Rock, SPOKEN WORD: Comedy Details: RELEASE OF "RAYDEO X" McKinney, Texas Feb. 6 2005- Texas Music Songwriter and Humorist, R.D. FOSTER has released a new CD called RAYDEO X. FOSTER, who is known for his avant gard style of country music, with underground cult hits such as, Will Barne's recording of 'She Ran Off With Buck" and "The Marijuana Polka", has put together over an hour's worth of musical comedy. RAYDEO X is in your face humor in the form of a fictitious radio station, XTRD-1369 (X-TURD) and is intended solely for the open minded adult with a bawdy sense of humor who isn't easily offended. RAYDEO X contains sex, violence, semi naked women, cussing, controlled substances and some damn good music. RAYDEO X is a funny on the edge satire of country music radio with a rowdy attitude. The CD contains 26 tracks of original songs, outrageous commercials, station breaks, public service announcements, xxx-treme sports, and a DJ. It has been described as "Country and Western on crack." RAYDEO X was written and produced by R.D. FOSTER, and recorded by sound engineer TRINA FOSTER, at their Red Dog Ranch Studio in McKinney, Texas. The project included participation of over forty different singers, musicians, and voices in order to get the general diversity of a radio station and took over two years to complete. For more information on RAYDEO X and R.D. FOSTER write to PO Box 603, McKinney, TX 75069.
