Artist bio: Robert Anton has been singing since he was a thought, or so his grandmother would tell you, and she should know. He grew up singing with choirs, quartets, and soloists at the pentecostal church where his grandma was the pastor. Not only did this instill in him a deep spiritual love of music and performing, it also gave him the courage to find his true calling at an early age. By the time Robert was a pre-teen, he knew music would be his life. Consequently he went on to study music at the Cleveland School of Arts and Baldwin-Wallace College; then he moved to Chicago and finally New York City to pursue his dream. Once in New York, Robert quickly began performing in any venue available and landed his first big tour doing his favorite show, Dreamgirls, with Miki Howard and other noted performers.

Since then, he has toured and performed in over 10 countries and 150 cities in various shows and with headlining performers like Miki, Vanessa Bell-Armstrong, Renoly Santiago, Altrina Grayson, and Lisa Nicole-Carson. Robert was also seen as a finalist on Its Showtime at the Apollo with Steve Harvey. Now Robert has embarked on a solo recording career and is celebrating his third indie CD release through his own company, playAnton productions, Inc. He also has a single out on Vinyl, 'Can You See Me', released by Souvent Records of Paris (not Georgia), France. "I feel so blessed to be able to Follow My Dreams."
