Join me, Shira Kline, and thousands of children, parents and students of all ages in a unique and compelling approach to Jewish education. Shira, is a New York based performer and music educator. She travels with her band, ShirLaLa, throughout the country and internationally bringing a dynamic, fully participatory program of joy and spirit, story and song, not to mention all out rock-star dancing and grooving! Brought up in the world and tradition of music, Shira works with communities to deepen rituals, holiday celebrations, and love for Jewish life and prayer. ShirLaLa features percussionist Tomer Tzur and guitarist Dan Nadel. Together, they touch the lives of children and their families at synagogues, museums, schools, festivals and community centers including the Skirball Cultural Center in Los Angeles, The Toronto Ashkenaz Festival, The Jewish Museum on Fifth Avenue, and most recently at the Alyeska Resort in Alaska. Shira is also a founding company member of Storahtelling: Jewish Ritual Theatre Revived with whom she is an actor, vocalist, and service leader. ShirLaLa has released three albums in their Holiday Series, ShirLaLa Shabbat! ShirLaLa Chanukah! and hot off the press, "ShirLaLa Pesach!" Visit her online at shirlala.com. With music, dance, stories, prayer, and art, we will celebrate our Oneness with God and the beautiful world around us.
