St. #158 Santa Barbara, CA. 93105 Sinuous Productions is an independent Hip-Hop, Soul, and Jazz based Production Company that was founded by Sinuous in 1997. After several years of assembling the company, Sinuous began recording songs for an artist known as P-able. In 2000 Sinuous signed P-able and later made him Vice President. During this time the company was offered multiple record deals but chose to turn them down due to faulty expectations in their contracts. We are an independent production company willing to be signed as an independent entity under a Major label if the contract terms coincide with our interests. We are a company of entrepreneurs grounded in the principles of creative control, professionalism, and overall hustle. The members of Sinuous Productions are some of the earliest contributors to Santa Barbara's Hip-Hop scene. Since 1998 we have been releasing underground mix tapes throughout California and have been featured with various artists around the nation. In late December 2005 this independent company released their full-length debut album "Sinuous Productions presents... Da Archives On Lock". The album contains 20 original songs that have been mixed and recorded by Sinuous at Sinuous Productions Studios. P-able made his production debut on the track titled "You Say What" and produced "Tu No Sabes Mi Vida" along side Sinuous who produced the remaining tracks on the album. Both Emcee's spit unique flavor showing their versatility not only as lyricists but as producers and engineers as well. Sinuous will be releasing his solo project Needle 2 da Groove shortly after the album Da Rhyme

Council, which should be released sometime in late Spring Sinuous comes from a multi ethnic background. Growing up in a Latino culture, being a twist of Hispanic, reflects in the essence of his music. With a street affiliated style, this multi-talented musician paints vivid images of his struggles that spark a strong connection with his audience. Known for battling emcees with a fierce raw delivery has shown his ability to spit endless freestyles, along with writing strong songs as well A melodic approach at producing Soulful, Jazzy, unique beats is what pulls Sinuous to the forefront of the music industry. Sinuous Productions has worked with such groups as The Dead I Click, Esquire of The Angelinos, Quest, The Society Of Invisibles, Ang 13, Mic Bles, Crush, Epidemmikk, any many more... Including local Sinuous Production affiliates such as Sene, Nebz Supreme, Dj Hectick, Synacle Minds, John Jinx The 3rd, and Bean1 Sinuous Productions is currently working on various projects, and plan on plenty more future releases so be on the lookout. From compilations and group albums, to more solo albums from the featured artists. Sinuous Productions stands balanced on three basic fundamentals: Hold skillz, know drillz, and fold billz.
