Passionate, heartfelt New Age piano, with Classical, Jazz Folk influences a la George Winston. 12 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Mood Music, CLASSICAL: New Age Details: Sydney Stevens began writing melodies before she could reach the piano pedals. Her earliest memory was watching her mother play classical piano. She started piano lessons at the age of 8, and began composing shortly thereafter. The early years of composing took Sydney through a folk music phase, where her rhythmic poetry easily lent itself to song. Following this folk phase, a period of composing lyrical New Age piano music emerged in Juneau, Alaska. In the late 1980's, Sydney relocated to Southern California where she finished her formal training in music composition at the University of Redlands. During this time, she also studied classical composition in York, England and with Bill Douglas in Colorado. In 1995, Sydney returned to the Pacific Northwest and recorded her debut CD "Dancers in the Rain" at White Horse Studios in Portland, Oregon. This album was co-produced by Bob Stark. Musicians include: Sydney Stevens: piano, Tim Ellis: guitar, Jeff Leonard: bass, Phil Baldino: flute, Brian Davis: percussion and Bob Stark: synthesizer programming. In 1998, while living in a remote part of Eastern Oregon, Sydney composed music for her CD "Seasons" which takes the listener on a musical journey through the cycle of seasons. "Seasons" features Mitch Limori on English horn, oboe and guitar. This album also features Phil Baker on bass guitar and Valerie Day on percussion. In 2003, Sydney produced her most recent CD "Portraits." Her most complex work to date, this CD maintains her strong melodic lines, with more developed orchestrations around the piano-based songs. It is a compilation of original songs inspired by people. She is currently networking with T.V. and film soundtracks. Sydney's music naturally lends itself to this genre--evoking strong and varied emotions. Born in Los Angeles, California and raised in Seattle, Washington, Sydney resides on the Oregon side of the beautiful Columbia River Gorge. Additional links: KindWeb.com
