Twangy/Bluesy Rockers who score with saucy hits like "You Gotta Wannit" "Nighthawks", not to mention the country rockin' fun on the title track "Just Enough Rope". 5 studio/4 live tracks make up this double EP by Chicago's finest. HIGHLY RECOMMENDED 9 MP3 Songs ROCK: Rockabilly, COUNTRY: Country

Rock Details: "The members of The Juleps have brought the high energy and rhythms of their primary rock and roll gigs, infused them with a little twang and a touch of blues, and then added some well-crafted lyrics, resulting in a tasty musical stew..." Al Kunz -- Rockzillaworld "Their mutual respect and laid-back attitude yields a cool, smooth product." -- Chicago Sun-Times "It's pretty hard to find a band who can play a Billy Joe Shaver song better than 'ol Billy Joe himself, but their live version of 'Hottest Thing In Town' might be the track that changes that theory forever..." Bill Holmes -- Cosmik Debris Magazine "Marvelous harmonies - both voices and lead guitars. Super musicianship, extraordinary lyrics and delicious song writing. Healthy turn out in a warm room too. Honky Tonk with balls..." Ben Ruth -- Chicago Local Bands Meet THE JULEPS... The talents of 3 of Chicago's most popular and prolific singer/songwriters....Gary Yerkins (Gtr/Vox, The INSIDERS), Grant Tye (Gtr/Vox, Robbie Fulks Band, Sonia Dada) Melissa Rose Ziemer (Vox/Percussion, GERTRUDE, Soul Intention) are combined with a kickin' band of dynamic players (Ed Breckenfeld (Drums, Writer for MODERN DRUMMER), Jay O'Rourke (Guitar, Produced Material Issue Urge Overkill) Fran Kondorf (Bass, Slammin' Watusi's, Cathy Richardson Band).

Together, these musicians represent a rockin' soulfulness that meld together to make the sound of The Juleps. For more details, check out TheJuleps.com!
