Umoverde consists of 5 inner city Los Angeles Chicanos fusing the sounds of reggae - Roots Dance hall with Latin Rhythms. One Quick listen is all you need to realize that Humo Verde has created a unique sound. 13 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, LATIN: General Details: Umoverde consists of five all-star inner city Los Angeles Latinos fusing the sounds of roots, dance hall reggae with cumbia, Salsa, and African rhythms. Umoverde was formed in 2004 consisting of veteran musicians who have played and experienced the Latin music uprising in the Los Angeles area and the United States in general. Umoverde displays a well developed original sound that is pleasantly surprising for such a young and fresh band. Umoverde has just finished recording their debut full length CD titled Rising up, scheduled for release on August 7th 2006. The CD consists of 13 songs in which seven songs are in Spanish and six in English, making Umoverde a bilingual band appealing to both, the Latin and American crowd. Umoverde has performed at various venues and clubs including The House of Blues Hollywood, The Key Club, Temple Bar in Santa Monica, Elbo Room in San Francisco, the Belly Up Tavern and Winstons in San Diego among other venues. They have performed on the popular cable show LATV Live featuring Pato from Control Machete. They also performed live on the Los Angeles radio station Super Estrella 97.5 FM's morning show, in front of the legendary Spanish rock group Jaguares (formely known as Los Caifanes ) where Saul, the lead singer said, Umoverde is a band that brings freshness to the scene. The organic, simplistic and original sounds of Umoverde make you realize that the re-establishment of the music industry is necessary. Always attracting the crowd towards the dance floor, the explosion of energy on stage is guaranteed to make people move with their fresh rhythms and psychedelic reggae grooves. Umoverde is always ready and prepared to spread Smokin Latin Reggae Grooves through performing, touring, recording and writing. They will tap into your inner mind, make your body move and enlighten your soul with lyrics that provoke social consciousness and self-reflection. Be sure to check out the the smokin reggae grooves of Umoverde blasting through a radio station, festival or club near you.
