From the moment I moved into my very first home, I spent a lot of time considering the shape of the lawn and what I could do to make it look better. As I stood on my new front porch, I saw clumps of grass that didn't match the rest of the grass, dandelions, and weeds. It was just grass it wasn't a lawn. I had visions of a beautiful green carpet lying out before me as I looked out over my kingdom. What I saw was much less than that. But I knew I could change that if I wanted to and I really wanted to! I started doing research and was simply overwhelmed at the vast amount of information on the Internet alone regarding lawn care and landscaping. There wasn't anyplace that put it together for me in one place. I thought my dream was dead. Then I Found This Book!
