Before she even realized that she had a tremendous gift to sing, she developed a special love for gospel music. After high school, she attended Edward Waters College in Jacksonville, Florida where she became a member of the Edward Waters Concert Choir. After returning from college, she joined and was a lead vocalist in the Southern Florida Community Choir. She then founded the Love, Peace, and Joy Gospel Singers in 1984, which was a featured guest every Sunday morning on the Heavenly Jubilee show on Channel 5 (WPTV) in West Palm Beach, Florida. She is also a writer of several songs in which some of them were recorded with Committed Gospel Singers and the Palm Beach Mass Choir. She also wrote four of the songs on her newly released CD; Saving My Life, His Name is Jesus, I Worship You, and He Keeps On Blessing Me. She was the director of the womens choir at her previous church, but now is a lead vocalist in her present church choir wherein she also directs and is a part of the praise and worship team. She was one of the founders and was also the director of the Palm Beach Mass Choir for almost 12 years. Annette has toured the Eastern United States and her music has been aired on radio stations throughout the state of Florida, Georgia, Texas, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and Ohio. An article concerning her ministry was published in the Paula White issue of the Gospel Truth Magazine in the summer of 2004, which was distributed throughout the United States. One of her tracks, Its Working For You, was featured on the Gospel Truth Sampler CD, which was distributed to hundreds of radio announcers and retail outlets throughout the country. She was nominated for Female Artist of the Year at the Palm Beach Gospel Music Awards in 2004 and now in 2005 in the state of Florida. She has ministered with the likes of James Bignon, Albertina Walker, Richard Smallwood , Andre Crouch, Rev. Milton Biggham, Dorothy Norwood, Bishop James Morton, and Rev. Timothy Wright. Shes also one of the lead vocalists for the soon to be released CD by the Greater Florida Mass Choir. Her primary goal is to be a witness to encourage the down-hearted, and to be able to draw young people as well as people in all walks of life to the love of God. Singing gospel music has always been a passion of hers, and at times turning down secular music offers because of her commitment to the gospel of Christ. Her first solo project, Saving My Life, is destined to become a real boost to her career, for it is a sample of the powerful anointing that God has placed on her voice and her life.
