Bruce Cook is an alternative pop and rock singer/songwriter known for atmospheric ballads and introspective modern rock. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Beatles-pop, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Bruce Cook has been composing and improvising music for as long as he can remember. "Music has always been a sort of escape for me," he reflects. "I've played a wide variety of instruments since I was a kid, ranging from trumpet to flute, piano to drums, and all manner of guitars. One time I actually begged my parents to buy me an accordion! Technology now enables me to play several instruments simultaneously. It's a great time to be a musician!" Bruce's sound has been compared to that of John Mayer, Coldplay, Chris Issak, Fleetwood Mac, Matchbox 20, Train, and U2. "Get it Right this Time" continues to hone the sound that made his first album "Begin Again" generate tens of thousands of internet listens and downloads all around the world. Twelve new songs were recorded in Cooks hometown in the heart of America, with some guitar and keyboard tracks being added during several trips to Los Angeles, CA. Musicians contributing to the album include musical veterans who have played with the Rembrandts, Joe Walsh, and the Eagles.
