An exotic, eerie musical sound scape, that sonically transports the listener further and further into the Vietnam experience, sometimes cascading into harmonic waterfalls, and other times keeping you on the edge of your seat. 8 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Virtual Orchestra, CLASSICAL: Minimalism Details: This release is available in Digital Download format ONLY. Please visit the CD-Baby partners including iTunes, Rhapsody and others in the links Dann Glenn Symphony No. 4 (The Vietnam Symphony) This is the fourth in a series of six symphonic works by Glenn and the second to be distributed digitally. His mixture of full orchestra and digital sound processing creates an exotic, eerie soundscape, that sonically transports the listener into another world. Each movement carries you further and further into the Vietnam experience, sometimes cascading into harmonic waterfalls, and other times keeping you on the edge of your seat with stark Philip Glass-esque minimalism. This is by far Glenn's most original work to date. The sounds of human voices, sometimes singing, sometimes unexpectedly shouting to you from the shadows, caps off this incredibly beautiful musical tapestry. When listening to Glenn's Symphony No. 4, one might be best suited to lower the lights, burn some incense, and take the ride with no distractions. A perfect companion to Dann's Novel based on his Vietnam experiences entitled "Almost a Proverb". Written and Performed by Dann Glenn Produced and Mastered by: Jon Pomplin Cover Art: Carey Miller Declassified Records
