Now this singer is back with a powerful new anointing and passion. He is much traveled as a singer, holding concerts in Canada, South Africa, Botswana, and Brazil as well as the US. His music ministry has been known to see many saved and healed as well. He has been described as a 'breath of fresh air' and one of the most exciting Christian artist that has graced the stage. recent recording projects include: 'God Still Loves Me' (released June 2000) 'All That He Is' (released Aug. 2000) 'A Very Special Christmas' (released Nov. 2000) 'When I Worship You' (released Feb. 2001) 'Songs My Mother Sang!' (released May 2001) 'When I Think Of His Grace' (released Nov. 2001) He continues to hold concerts around the country and abroad. No greater desire does this artist have, than to see people touched by the power of his anointed music. He has given his life to this cause. "I must minister in song to those who have a desire to have God touch their lives", says Smith. This is his life's mission, and God's call. His latest, 'When I Think Of His Grace', is the finest to date. The music is urban jazz, and the lyrics are clearly gospel. This album is making a big splash around the country. There are noted musicians featured on each cut, and big time talent was lent to complete this most inspiring project. Dudley's rich unique vocals added the final touches to this major production, that brings the whole thing to life. Your ears will enjoy listening to this seasoned gospel artist.
