Eric is greatly influenced by Reverend Gary Davis, Mississippi John Hurt, Speckled Red, Pinetop Smith, Blind Blake and other early blues musicians. Eric has performed at many clubs and festivals including the Chicago Blues Festival, Eureka Springs Blues Festival, White River Folk Festival, Buddy Guys Legends, Slippery Noodle Inn and the Alaska State Fair. Eric is known for his energetic playing style and his soulful voice. Noden is a master of a variety of early blues styles including delta blues, peidmont blues and ragtime blues as well as boogie-woogie piano. His new CD "Midwest Blues" features Eric's emergence as a songwriter as well. Half of the tunes on the new album are original compositions including the first cut River Town. This is real honest blues played from the gut. For more info on Eric visit his website at erichoden.com
