It's an Ecclectic mix rock, electronic, folk, and dance. 41 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Experimental, POP: 80's Pop Details: I was once a member of the eclectic duo known as Rythmic Kult who manage to establish a local following several years ago. We also were in negotiations with a record label, but never took advantage of the situation due to our personal conflicts which eventually led to the breakup of us as a duo. I was going through my storage compartment one day, and stumbled upon one of my analog 4 track reels and decided to listen to it. It was early recordings of me I simply put away and forgot about. I then decided to gather all the reels and the 4 track and compile a collection of some of my better recordings produced on my analog machine, in which of course this CD is the finished product. I felt as though it would be such a waste for me to leave all the reels with these interesting and cool songs in my storage compartment only to deteriate over more time. They're emotive, sophisticated, and innovative eclectic songs, roughs, and samples that grab your attention, and leave you wanting more. The title originated from the recording process held mostly after gigs, until the early morning hours. My agenda is for this product to be the first of others to come, and shall follow the growth and re-establishment of a forgotten artist. My #1 influence that inspired me to persue a career in music are the Eurythmics. Their production abilities and emotive songs gave me a since of strength, drive, and to never give up on my dream. Also one thing that I'm told is that I sound like the artist Prince? I myself don't hear it when I listen to my music, however, friends and family think so?! Anyway, I enjoy listening to four track recordings of other artist, if you also share the same passion as I do, then purchase my CD and give your honest opinion of it. Sincerly, Floyd
