G.Thomas lives in Kristiansand, but was born in northern Norway Bod, actually started his career as a country artist in the United States in 1979. Still in school, he discovered and "voiced" his interest in country music "over there". His first performance was at the "Claimjumper" in Park City, Utah. On numerous occasions over the past years, G.Thomas has returned to the U.S. recorded two albums and performed as a guest artist in the states of Utah, California, Louisiana, Tennessee, Colorado, Montana, Kentucky and Texas. He has gained a lot of experience and inspiration from working with highly gifted professional musicians and artists over there. During his visits to the U.S., and particularly Nashville over the years, G.Thomas has established good connections with several influential song writers. Most of the material included on the 9 albums released by G.Thomas so far, are from this source. G.Thomas himself is also stepping into the songwriting world. "Originality is crucial", says one of Norway's leading country artists, which is expressed in his albums. G.Thomas also appears on a large number of multi - artist releases, both with Norwegian and International artists. Since 1985, G.Thomas has released the following nine albums: Southern Comfort - 1985 On the Run - 1986/87 Playinmy songs - 1989 Special Tour Collection - 1990 Lost and Found - 1993 Jesus in a Leather Jacket - 1996 G.Thomas Live in Concert 1999 Brother Jukebox 2001 (single) Wishful Thinking - 2005 All his albums have received excellent reviews and praise from the media and country fans alike. His 3 latest studio albums " LOST FOUND " and " JESUS IN A LEATHER JACKET " and WISHFUL THINKING, have received critical acclaim, putting the name of G.Thomas up among the top country artists in Europe. G.Thomas is touring Norway all year round. He has also had successfully tours in large parts of Europe including Denmark, Sweden, Finland, Germany, Poland, England, Holland, Estonia and Lithuania.

Among several major performances in Europe, G.Thomas was the first Norwegian artist at the "Peterboro festival" in England, the "Country Picnic in Poland and the "Harku Jarve" country festival in Tallinn, Estonia, where he topped the bill. His connections in the U.S. have resulted in tours with international recording artists, amongst them Bobby Bare (9 tours),The Bellamy Brothers, Tanya Tucker, Don Williams,Joe Sun and Dave Dudley. Following successful tours with Bobby Bare in 1991/92, G.Thomas was invited to Nashville (March 92) to record 4 songs intended for inclusion on the planned new album " Lost and Found ". He was so happy with the results of the recording session, that he returned to Nashville in January 1993 and completed the album. The musicians used on the album were the cream of Nashvilles session players. Amongst them, G.Thomas was happy to see and work with again, Al Perkins, whom he had met in Oslo, as a member of Emmylou Harriss band " The Nash Ramblers ". One of the songs on the album is written by Waylon Jennings, who also plays guitar and sings harmony with G.Thomas (Down Came the World). Bobby Bare also sings a duet with G.Thomas on his uncles song (North Carolina). Producers on the album were Bobby Bare, Ken Smith and G.Thomas. G.Thomas feels equally at home performing to audiences in small clubs and honky tonks with 200 people - to such major events as "Momarkedet Fair" near the Norwegian capital , Oslo, "Country Picnic" in Poland and "The Harku Jarve Country Festival" in Tallinn, Estonia, attracting more than 20000 people.
