Guitar for the 21st Century. 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: Instrumental Rock, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: FREE! After Hours Poster with every CD! "Jeff Dean, a veteran guitarist and bassist of all styles, lets loose in a variety of musical arenas on his new release After Hours. This CD has everything that you can possibly imagine coming from the strings of a guitar, and then some..." Tracks like "Space Aged," "County Fair," and the title cut "After Hours" (Number 1 hit on mp3instrumentals) have ominous hooks that continue to haunt you as you're suddenly bombarded by the onslaught of guitar acrobatics that is best described as...for lack of a better word.. intense. Track 6 "Let Me In" is the first release on smooth-jazz radio. This song is layered with tasty wah-wah, chord phrasing, and a few tricks of its own that will please even the most scrutinizing listener. There is definitely something here for anyone that likes to hear the guitar played at its highest level. As one promoter puts it "The real surprise is how the songs stay with you. I literally start hearing WORDS come out of that guitar." But the icing on the cake has got to be the acoustic work on tracks 9 "Brushfire," and 10 "Brothers." Jeff lost his older brother and mentor Howard to a tragic car crash in 1984, and these 2 songs were co-written by them. You can feel the pain for the loss, as you can also feel the joy that can only be shared through music in these two very special numbers. Don't skip one, though! Each of these 14 songs will take you on it's own personal journey. COME TAKE THE RIDE FOR YOURSELF YOU'LL BE GLAD YOU DID!
