Acoustic Folk-Rock with heart and energy designed to make a positive influence on the world from the California lifeguard/world traveller/Acoustic Warrior - John Sotter. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, POP: Folky Pop Details: John Sotter is an acoustic warrior - battling with his music against environmental destruction, apathy, heartlessness, and hatred. His powerful vocals and driving harmonica solos have been piercing the hearts of audiences for over ten years, where he has performed on festival stages and in nightclubs, bars and coffee shops in six countries. John's passionate stage presence and musical mastery has helped develop for him an ever-growing following of fans and friends. A Californian ocean lifeguard by day and acoustic warrior by night, John Sotter drives on - releasing his second album and performing live regularly in hopes of contributing to a better world where kindness and compassion rule. He's a one-man band with a big, edgy sound - a powerhouse of energy that enables him to truly entertain an audience of any size, age, or nationality. Whether rambling through an original version of a traditional cover song, or belting out an original battle-piece, his appeal is totally universal - it's all about heart and energy.
