Real songs that are sometimes silly, sometimes serious, and sometimes both, with an apparent and irreverent love for kids and their folks. 10 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: Lullabies Details: Kevin Kane is a singer/songwriter living and performing in New York City. He plays in schools, in parks, at parties, in clubs, coffeehouses - in short, anywhere children and their folks gather. Kevin is a staff songwriter for Mr.Christmas, Inc, a toy company that makes figurines and stuffed toys that sing when you tickle them. Kevin began performing for children with the renowned Penny Ante Children's touring theater company, working on stage and for television. He was a regular performer on Ring Around the World, NBC-TV, and is also a playwright, having written for both children's theater and for New York and regional stages. One NYC critic said of his folk material, "what Anton Chekhov would have sounded like if they'd given him a guitar and a harmonica." Don't let that scare you. Chekhov was a very nice man who was always a hit with the kids! Kevin's songs for children and their folks are sometimes funny, some times irreverent, and always a hit with kids. Some of the songs for the folks are so on the money they will set you spinning this cd for yourself, after the little ones are asleep!
