Her flow reminiscent of Lauryn Hill. A classic intended to heal millions, she lights passion under progression and excites the masses of head noddors, this real blessing has 7.22 grams of digestible projection. 15 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Poetry, HIP-HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: Me-cca was born Trimicka Elizabeth Patterson July 22, 1975 in sweet southern Columbus Georgia and she is the 2nd of 9 children. Feeling a little crowded she made a big move the summer she turned 6 Me-cca went to live as an only child with her aunt and uncle who lived in Philadelphia. What a Blessing! After graduating from Delaware State University with a theatre minor. She entered the working community full blast (student loans you know). Performing just wouldn't stay dormant. She enrolled in and graduated from John Cassablanca's School of Acting and Modeling. Now equipped with strong acting credentials she auditioned for and became a client of Mike Lemon Casting Agency landing roles in M. Night Shamalan's "Unbreakable and Signs" also appearing in two Independent films by writer and director Marjorie Anxst. Juggling the roles of teaching with the Philadelphia School District and persuing a graduate degree in Special Education she didn't have as much time to focus on a serious career as a performer. Me-cca faught with her creative side often, and to the point of exhaustion. When she remembered the poetry cafes that she use to frequent all the time while in undergraduate school. Asking around she was lead to the famed "Black Lily @ the 5 Spot" the "Philadelphia Clef Club" and countless more Gems embedded in Philadelphia's cultural Mecca. Needless to say she picked up her pen changed her name 'Me-cca' and began to hit the open mics (HARD). Me-cca has shared the stage as a Spoken Word Artist with the likes of Floetry, Jill Scott, Jazzyfatnastees, Musiq, Bilal, Lady Alma and more! Me-cca has also been able to share her Spoken Word in some of the most famous places along the East Coast.
