On this outing, Nicolas gives a nod to some of his favorite contemporary composers and sweetens the set with seven of his own original compositions. "All About Love" opens with a sparkling arrangement of the Burt Bacharach classic, "You'll Never Get To Heaven (If You Break My Heart)" produced by guitarist, Chris Camozzi. Lush and romantic, "Wild is the Wind" follows with enough exotic heat to set your soul on fire. And with songs ranging from the deep, spiritual love exemplified in John Coltrane's classic composition "Naima", to mankind's search for peace and equality-eloquently portrayed in Donny Hathaway's "Tryin' Times"-Nicolas puts his heart on the line for all to see. "All About Love" also pays homage to those classic summer jams and the raw soul singles of the seventies in Nicolas's original party piece "Summer Sunday". And for the lovers, get ready for some late night, soul grabbing lovin' with the steamy, old school romanticism of originals like "Love Me" and "One Look at You". Make no mistake, it's "All About Love".
