In 1995 she releases AHORA, and Enamorados, the first single from this album, reaches number one on several of the most important local radio charts in Per. As a result of this achievement, the song starts playing in countries such as Guatemala, Costa Rica, Uruguay and Paraguay. The second single, Vamos a Bailar, continues to make progress at the international level reaching the number one spot at Polski Radio, the most important Pop radio station in Poland. Additionally, with this record, Nina obtained the Premio Diana award as the top singer / songwriter of that year. She also took part in very important and massive live events and was nominated to the Bertoloto Awards for video of the year and song of the year with Enamorados. In 1999 Nina was invited by the United Nations Information Center to perform her song Tierra (Earth) as a part of the official celebrations for the World Environment Day. In 2001, NAVEGANTE was released and the cut Y Como Estás Corazón became the theme song for Gente Como Uno, a popular soap opera (Telenovela) directed by Michel Gomez. As result, the song became widely accepted and Nina was chosen as the best singer / songwriter for that year by POP (Peruana de Opinión Pública), a public opinion research firm. This is how, after becoming a mother and experiencing a productive period of creative silence Nina Mutal was signed by KMMGroup, an independent U.S. record label, that has recently released CON EL VIENTO A TU FAVOR, a top notch quality production that reflects great artistry and superb creativity. Con El Viento A Tu Favor. Nina Mutal's latest album, released by KMMGroup U.S. Latin, echoes the work of a sharp, bold and open minded artist that combines unconventional lyrics filled with reflections from our day to day living experiences and mysticism with her sultry, sensual, and soulful voice capable of stirring the listener into a variety of emotions. Several tracks from this album have been written by some of the most successful and accomplished songwriters currently at work inside the Latin industry. Tracks like Ven Conmigo, Lo Que Fue No Ser and Te Llevo en el Alma were written by Juan Carlos Prez-Soto and Jodi Marr (Ricky Martn, Soraya, Obie Bermdez, Ricardo Montaner, Luis Fonsi, Paulina Rubio, Alejandra Guzm, Elvis Crespo, Richie Sambora, Steven Tyler, Gerri Halliwell, Mika, etc.), as well as Con el Viento a tu Favor and Una Mujer componed by Cris Zalles (Chayanne, Ricky Martn, Eros Ramazzotti, Marcos Llunas, Ricardo Arjona, Nito Mestre, etc.), are great examples of the song power portrayed by this album. Every track on Con El Viento A Tu Favor reflects a captivating combination of powerful production, a no compromise songwriting style, and Ninas passionate singing to create a unique sound that brings listeners effectively close to the myriad of emotions she conveys on every song. The album showcases Nina Mutals continued evolution as a singer/songwriter by blending terrific hooks, sing-along choruses, seductive rhythms, deep lyrics and lots of energy, essential elements for any great pop / rock album.
