Melodic Electro-Pop CD that's soon to be re-mixed by DJ Tracy Young and Thomas Penton that hints of Depeche Mode and Gwen Stefani. 6 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover, POP: with Electronic Production Details: "Never Knowing has a cool arrangement with a lot of creative weaving of loops and vocal effects.....the chorus is strong with an infectious hook." -TAXI "This EP is an introduction to another new synthpop band called Northern Mars that plays poppy, well written songs with both male and female vocals, trading off from song to song. They have a slightly 80's flavor and I particularly enjoy the guy who sounds similar to Neil Arthur of Blancmange (an old favorite of mine). There are six solid songs on the CD." -A Different Drum Records "Northern Mars has put together a enjoyable debut here, and it will be exciting to see where they go from here" -Jason Baker, Synthpop.net Northern Mars have announced the release of a yet to be titled Re-Mix album featuring DJ Tracy Young and Thomas Penton. Tracy Young is known for her hard-hitting remixes of Madonna's "What It Feels Like For A Girl" and "Dont Tell Me". Young has also re-mixed Pet Shop Boys', "I Dont Know What You Want But I Can't Give It Anymore".
