Details: Paranoid State's long-awaited release has arrived! Australia's hottest dance group has released this album packed with awesome energetic pop dance beats with catchy melodies and fabulous vocals. The luscious vocals of Sera Monson delivers a striking presence, both delicate and powerful. The sound is refreshing for not only the dance music community but for everyone who loves great music. Think "Faithless vs Madonna" and you've captured the essence of Paranoid State. "Paranoid State" consists of Top 40 influences, trance rhythms, atmospheric textures and melodic lyrics. From the outset, the dance remix of Madonna's "La Isla Bonita" starts the party on a high and the energy-packed trance vibe continues throughout this album. Buy the album now and receive TWO BONUS TRACKS ("La Isla Bonita - Extended Club Remix" "Latino - Flinders Street Remix") Paranoid State members: Vocals - Sera Monson Every generation is blessed with extraordinary talent. This generation has been blessed with Sera Monson. Her vocal prowess has taken her to the stage of the Sydney Opera House, Sydney Town Hall, Australian Museum, Hordern Pavillion and the Sydney Convention Exhibition Centre. Sera has also graced the stage with Australian legends Glenn Shorrock, Rhonda Burchmore, Peter Dawkins and Ross Ryan. She has also written with Sev Guiducci, award-winning producer Audius and Peter Dawkins, where she recorded at Sony BMG studios. During her studies at AIM, Sera was a performer at the Institutes Open Days, and was the face of their Media Campaign on billboard and in Drum Media. Sera continues to be the exclusive choice of USANA Health Sciences conferences in the Asia/Pacific region, where she has thrilled audiences since 2004 in Sydney, New Zealand and most recently Malaysia. The atmosphere is now blessed with the voice and talent of Sera Monson. Producer - Martin Hunter Hunter formed the London pop-group "Ashmore" with Sean Power in 2000 and was spotted by A&R guru Kevin Holland King of Silverword records. The debut CD was released in 2001 and available in 7 countries, closely followed by their second techno dance album in 10 countries. The first vinyl single, released on Londons "Trusted Recordings" label in collaboration with DJ Lucci DJ Louca, sold out within days and was promoted by Roger Sanchez at Ibiza's Manumission dance club as well as being played by Annie Nightingale on BBC Radio 1. Having previously written for Future Music Magazine, Hunter moved to sunny Sydney and formed "Paranoid State" with outstanding vocalist Sera Monson. Recently, Hunter has produced two "Paranoid State" dance remixes with Australian R&B singer Jade MacRae to be released in 2008 on Workstation Records. Musicians: Dazzy Flinders remixed "Latino" and created the huge dance-floor-filler "Latino - Flinders Street Remix". Sean Power (Ashmore) wrote a number of tracks including the lyrically satisfying "Paranoid Prima Donna". Engineered and mastered by the legendary Paul Gomersall (Bardot, The Whitlams, Sinéad O'Conner, George Michael), this album oozes audio brilliance and sonic clarity. If you love music with a great beat, catchy melodies and fabulous vocals, this is the CD for you!
