Witnessing grown men get emotional during the singing of "The Pale Rider." A song inspired by the demise of his young niece. Upon returning home from Europe Sonny was contacted by a radio jock from France about the CD. The jock said his listeners are requesting songs from the CD to include "I can't Wait," "Drowning In You Kiss" (some think this song speaks in metaphors) and the song "The Pale Rider." This song will take the place of Amazing Grace as the family anthem. This is a great CD to have in your collection. This is one of Sonny Byers best works by far.
