An impressive body of songs with a backbone of pop/rock. A little darker than his previous material, with comments on relationship breakdown, life and death, longing and loneliness. Details: Steve Thompson is a guitarist/drummer/vocalist based in Newcastle, NSW, Australia. He has been playing and recording music for over 15 years both in bands and as a solo artist. Steve's music is a blend of wide ranging styles including rock, folk, pop, alternative, metal and house/techno. "This album is a natural progression from my previous albums. I think the sound is more consistent - I'm finding my 'style'. I'm in a pop/rock vein with this one, but with layered keyboards and vocals. It's a bit darker and the themes at times are a bit more poignant, but there's enough 'up' songs to not make it depressing. There's some lighter and melodic stuff as well. As usual there's a lot of variety! I don't think any one will be disappointed."
