first, this is a blindingly good album. "Neighborhood Noir'" is roots rock at it's absolute finest....to reiterate, a hidden gem which can be unearthed at lonesometrailers.com. John Lonergan-Revolutions Magazine, London England Entertaining music, thought provoking lyrics, with an honest look at contemporary issues. Mike Kennedy, DJ -WYCE-88.1 FM (GR) Dear LT's, thanks for sending your most excellent "Neighborhood Noir'" CD. My highest compliments towards these lyrics...class insight and depth. Eddie Russell, DJ -Columbus, Texas Your new CD just came in. I gave it a couple of spins and I want you to know I love it. I played it for our producer and he went nuts. Dani Heyvaert, Leopolsburg, Belgium Lokale Radio 103.1 FM. The band has assembled a bracing, emotionally dark gem with this album... A delectable feast and one of the best local albums to hit West Michigan in years.....3 stars of 4, John Sinkevics-Grand Rapids Press This articulate, grippingly unhinged trio plays what it describes as Original Rural Rock...not to mention the burdens of being in an ornery/independent country tinged rant band ... hopefully this impassioned, self-made CD will resound past geographical and cultural boundaries. 4 Stars- Bob Strauss-LA Daily News Just received your package, after listening to it, I must say you did a great job again. Listening to your two CD's I can see what a talented band you are. Ray Elly- Rootstown

News, Belgium We reviewed your album and spun a cut last night, good stuff, we'll definitely play deeper into the CD. Douglas Neal, Progressive Torch and Twang, WDBM-FM, Lansing, MI "A Mayberry boy in a Melrose world" sings DVZ on this CD's opening song and it nicely describes this Michigan band. This is gimmick free roots- rock whose writing pens well drawn tales that live up to the albums title. Longtime friends and songwriting partners, David Vander Zanden and Steve Herin, decided they needed to put their songs out in the light after writing together since the mid-eighties. They've won two Billboard Magazine "Honorable mentions" in their nationwide songwriting contest. The Lonesome Trailers released a six song cassette in 1996 and changed a couple of players. In 1998 they self- released a CD called "It's Not What You're Thinking" that made it's way into 15 countries and 35 states. Their song, "Puppets from Nashville" was included on a compilation CD from England called "Cool Hands and Hot Heads. They were also selected for a couple "top ten" lists for "Indie" CD of the year. In 2001 the Trailers released "Neighborhood Noir' The album was written and recorded in Muskegon County with all Muskegon, Ottawa and Newaygo County talent. It was selected as one of "Independent Songwriter Magazines" top CD's of February, plus a top ten release of the month from Milo Radio in Belgium. The album has received many terrific reviews from all over the world including "Revolutions Magazine" in England, The Grand Rapids Press, and Rootstown News in Belgium and the LA Daily News. The CD is in 17 different countries already including airplay in Japan, Sweden, Germany, The Netherlands, Belgium and more to come.
