Dylan meets Bacharach - beautiful song structures and melodies - pop poetry - influences: folk, rock, ballad, some blues, classical - the lyrics and melodies take you on a winding colourful journey - thought provoking, moving, sometimes disturbing... 9 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: British Pop Details: ...the thing is, I've written songs for years, (I won't tell you how many years). It seems I'm exceptionally good at writing songs. But I became disillusioned with myself, I thought I'd "missed the boat" ... I tried to find a safe, conventional job, that would pay the bills, (without much success). (But I still wrote songs) Then, a few years ago, I met someone who heard my songs, related so strongly to them, she said: they put into words, things she had always felt but had never been able to express... she loved my songs...I suddenly saw their brilliance... I had hundreds of jewels right under my nose, (its amazing how you can miss the obvious, when your are so close up to it) ... I had a new faith in my music. I've been inspired to go out into the world and try again... and what do you know? other people love my songs too!!! So here I am ... with the marvel of the internet ... HELLO EVERYBODY.... I HOPE YOU ENJOY THE SHOW!! ...and No More U-turns! contact: tonychapman@quicknet.nl
