"Witness pours a refreshing blend of poetry, scathing political commentary and journalistic confession over the boom bap we've grown accustomed to." 9 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: "Next up comes an EP from Witness, an MC and producer from Philadelphia, PA. Ever Since is an 9 track slice of brilliance on a number of levels and delivers a multitude of sounds and emotions, transcending a lot of what I've heard lately. As an MC, Witness can rip it fast or take it slow and smooth, all with a great flow that never sounds off point." -Caught in the Crossfire magazine caughtinthecrossfire.com When emcees and producers attend intensive one-on-one therapy and relieve themselves of egos, they give birth to musicians like Witness. Lyricist, part-time producer and leader of the eclectic collective of like-minded musicians called Recollective, Witness has been trying to work his way into the new generation of indie hip hop artists. Ever Since is an 9 track mixtape style album of songs released from 2004-2005. Originally intended to be sold exclusively on the 22 city "Peace Poor Child Tour" of 2005, it was repressed constantly in response to online demand. Featuring production from up and coming producers Emancipator and Atarax, Ever Since is as broad lyrically as sonically. With the fierce commentary on the current political climate over flamenco guitars in "Soap Box Stance" to ruminations on women's rights over a somber saxophone in "Sylvia Plath", "Ever Since" contains a variety of moods and a solid amount of replay value for it's relatively short length.
