A local Country Star never heard before on National Radio. Don't miss out on this beautiful sound of Country. Listen to Betty Dempsey's powerful and beautiful voice. 32 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Western Details: The new Tribute Collection includes 31 songs, including songs from when Betty Dempsey was 18 years old recorded at K-ARK Recordings in Nashville, TN. It will also include a radio interview she did with Paul Bain on the radio in 2003 and some live music as well. My goal in creating this CD was to make her music available to the world. It would mean a lot to me that as many people as possible will be able to listen to Betty's beautiful voice. I always thought all these years what a shame it was that her career never went National. I owe it to her to make sure the world can hear her sing and her Name will live on. I am also going to donate $5 from every CD sold, to help fight lung disease in my Mother's name. "Thank you to all of the friends and fans of Betty Dempsey for your continuous loyalty to my Mother and for listening to her music for all these years. To those of you who are unaware, my mother passed away on May 7th, 2005. She died of lung complications at Wesley Long Hospital in Greensboro, North Carolina. She suffered for the past three years of Emphysema and COPD lung disease. Below I have copied and pasted the biography I wrote for my Mom a few years ago. I hope you will keep listening. I will make sure her music is always available for you to listen to." Short Biography written by Betty's Daughter Katherine Morris Betty Dempsey was born in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. She grew up in a family of 5 kids with two Brothers and two sisters, Mother, Leona Dempsey and Father, Jack Dempsey. Betty played the trumpet and the Guitar in Grammar School. She practiced often and the family loved to get together and sing country songs. Soon she became a rhythm guitarist and started giving guitar lessons at the age of 16 to other students. Betty's father often took her to local clubs and made her get up on the stage to sing. Betty is a bit shy but once she got up there she sang her heart out.

At the age of 18 she recorded four (4) records for K-ARC Record Company in Nashville, TN. "The Memory of You," written by Betty Dempsey and George Elliot, "Lonesome Without You," written by Betty Dempsey, "Crazy Crazy Crazy Heart" and "Part of a Home" also written by Betty Dempsey. She also recorded a song for Potria record Company, called "Tears Lonely Tears," written by F. Hober. Her most recent recording includes two original songs titled "It's All Gone," written by Sonney Throckmorton, TN and "These Empty Arms," written by John Troy, NJ. Betty's Father was an electrician and traveled often to do jobs around the United States so at the age of 18 she moved up to Jersey City, NJ with the whole family. On April 25, 1970 Betty won an award covering eleven north east states as "Best Female Artist" at "The Golden Nugget" located in Newburgh, NY. Betty started playing country music at several local country clubs such as "The Hurricane" in New York where she played with Eddie Rabbit and Walt Conklin, "The Coral Bar" in East Paterson, "The Pavillion Lounge" in Budd lake which seated over 300 people. "Charlie's Corner," now known as "Krajewski's" in Secaucus, NJ. She played there for several years at other clubs such as the "Rocking Horse" in Union City, NJ, "The Rainbow Inn" in Woodridge, NJ, "The Blue Ribbon Inn" in Hillside, NJ and the "Palomino Club" in Wallington where she played with Mack Sullivan and the Oklahoma Rangers. She was hired at the Palomino Club by the owner Mac Sullivan who stated he don't usually hire woman singers but when he heard Betty sing he changed his mind. Betty was propositioned to take a bus tour throughout the states in 1978 but she turned this opportunity down in order for her only daughter Kathy to have a stable home life. When I hear her sing in public or at home when I listen to her tapes it often brings tears to my eyes. It may be the intensity of her voice and her feeling behind the music she sings or because I know she worked so hard her whole life playing music and she deserves to have went further than playing in some night club or wedding. I remember going to her house last Christmas and her whole bedroom was covered with Christmas cards and I asked her who are all of these from? She told me they were from her fans. People that follow her around all the time to watch her sing. I couldn't believe it. Over the years she recorded three or four more demo tapes. Her most recent made about 4 years ago. She finally recorded "It's All Gone" written by a song writer in Tennessee. This song was never recorded before or played on the air. They played the song on the air at Fairley Dickinson University 89.1 and the DJ Paul Bain called Betty in to do an interview over the radio and played her new song for her. I thought for sure someone would hear her story and hear her song and I thought finally her hard work might pay off. I Just want to say if anyone out there has an interest in a powerful country voice with feeling behind it listen to Betty sing. All of her fans know her as MS. BETTY DEMPSEY but I am so proud to be able to call her MOM. Hope you enjoy the new Tribute Collection I put together. Email me at BettyDempseyMusic@yahooif you have any questions.
