For the past few years this Pan-American trio has brightened milongas and clubs in the SF Bay Area with the intensity of their compelling emotional melodies. 10 MP3 Songs LATIN: Tango, WORLD: World Fusion Details: This CD captures the fevered heart of tango. Pop this into your stereo and experience the longing of unrequited love, the ache of homesickness, the frustration of the difficulties of life, the building of desire... For those new to tango this is an excellent introduction to tango cancin. For those tangueros out there, Corazn al Sur has chosen songs sure to please. The delicate Gricel, with sparse piano supporting the honeyed voice of Claudio Ortega, is exquisite. The jazz influenced La Cumparsita throws the beat down in a way that insists on dancing. The delicate balance of guitar and piano floating in and out of the foreground in Uno is unforgettable. And the wonderful El Dia Que Me Quieras makes you believe that she will love him, today. All three of the members of Corazn al Sur have had a lifelong interest in music. Claudio Ortega, a native of Buenos Aires, has been singing these melodies since boyhood. He is deeply inspired by the classic tango singer, Carlos Gardel. Stephanie Newsom expands the melodies with a fresh approach to classical tango on piano and accordion. Peter Newsom plays guitar and bass that range from exploring delicate conversation with the piano into full-out rocking tango fusion. For the past few years this Pan-American trio has brightened milongas and clubs in the SF Bay Area with the intensity of their compelling emotional melodies. "Their interpretation of these classic jewels of the tango milieu will bring delight and open your heart." Come listen and see if you agree. People who are interested in Carlos Gardel should consider this download.
