A collection of 12 original finger style melodies for acoustic guitar with string arrangements on violin, mandolin, cello and a light touch of percussion that is relaxing to pleasantly upbeat in alternating tracks to provide a soothing variety. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Gentle, NEW AGE: Celtic New Age Details: Ken Baldwin has been seriously performing since the 1990s after teaming up as a principle songwriter and guitarist with the Kentucky Standard Band, an acoustic string ensemble. The band performed in the music circles of Kentucky folk festivals and have produced several recording projects over the years. An overseas tour as Army Entertainment Director for the community of Hohenfels, Germany nudged Baldwin into taking a more upfront role as a solo performer upon returning to the States. The collection of acoustic instrumentals for guitar was composed while in Europe and eventually recorded in Louisville, KY. It was released in 2006 as "Bones of a Saint", his first solo project. Also a graphic artist, the compositions/arrangements reflect the use of space, color, design and values into the music. Plus the album cover art is a playful use of Edvard Munch's "The Scream". Now performing these days in Maryland and Pennsylvania as a soloist and also with guitarist Michael Mulligan. His son Logan is a gifted drummer in several bands located in Lexington, KY and also performed on the "Bones" project. David Wilson provides a beautiful complement on violin/mandolin/cello with his own sweet touch. Portions of the proceeds go to the John Lovins Scholarship fund.
