This album is filled with outstanding rnb flava that will appeal to all nationalities around the world. 12 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Rhythm Blues, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: KWASI MANTEY Kwasi Mantey is a dynamic R&B singer/songwriter born on Valentines Day in Worawora, Ghana, West Africa. While living in Ghana, Kwasi had aspirations of becoming a popular performing artist. Those aspirations prompted him to come to America in search of his dreams. Kwasis expressive talent evolves to being more than just a singer; he is also an outstanding percussionist. He received drum training at the acclaimed Arts Council Dance Company of Ghana, and he also played percussion for the popular GBC-TV BAND, and for Eddie Quansah an exceedingly popular musician in London. He has since choreographed dances for the Dinisulu Dance Company, and he also captured a role in the Broadway production of Satichmo. Considering Kwasis extensive travels throughout the African, European, and Caribbean nations, Kwasis unique song-writing abilities and dynamic vocal abilities reveal an extraordinary blend of European, Caribbean, and American Rhythm Blues sounds. His music reflects his compassion for life and his concerns for society. He has been compared to two of todays greatest entertainers, Joe and Seal. Kwasi has a unique rhythmic sound that the whole world will enjoy. His main objective is to become a critically acclaimed international performer. He will bring a new element to the entertainment world.
