Details: Moesez is a conscious hip hop artist. His new album covers every aspect of life that effects us on a daily basis. Songs about single mothers to choices we make and how they can effect us, no do overs, how to look at things in a positive perspective and put everything into your life, following your dreams being inspired, believeing in your self. The abulm is listener friendly, good for all ages. During the recording of this album Moesez saw an oppurtunity on the indie level of music and started working under Passion Records, the indie label for indie artists,this record label gives it's artists full control unlike the large label, Moesez brings something different to the table. If you buy this album you will feel something different, something real, the music on this album has inspired people on so many levels, it's helped them get over a bad day or time period in their livies. Moesez has been told many times that he puts a new face and new style to hip hop music and if you buy this album I'm shure you agree. MOESEZ: Thank you for taking the time to read this. I know how busy life can get. When I write a song I just be real and I know if your real my music will reach you on some level in some way. No matter what happens in life don't forget there's no do overs and there's no take two's. Thanks again.) MOESEZ..
