Details: OUTLAW BLUES ALBUM Produced by Billy Joe Burnett Special Thanks John Hancock and Rich Dixon 1. OUTLAW BLUES I wrote this song as a good old fashioned horse riding gun slinging country blues song. (SEE VIDEO)The video was so much fun to make. We filmed it in Nashville next door to Rebas Ranch 2. ONE IN A MILLION This song explains how I felt in College when guys would ask you out just to be their arm piece and even though they had good credentials, it was wonderful to feel loved like that One in a Million Guy. And when you find him.marry him quick. I Did 3. LOOK ME RIGHT IN THE HEART You know when someone looks at you with their heart in their eyes and speak the truth? That is all I am asking here in this song. 4. BETWEEN THE DEVIL THE DEEP Okay we have all felt like we were between the Devil and the Deep Blue or Between a Rock and a Hard Spot. I just wrote a song about it. 5. LOVE CAN TURN THE TIDE I really believe that Love Can Turn the Tides of life. Love is a miracle and can do almost anything 6. GOING HOME You know how when you go back to your home town and everything looks so different; The house looks so much smaller because it felt bigger when you were just little. The buildings have changed and your childhood friends have grown up and moved awaybut your mom and dad are still the samethey still have grapefruit before breakfast and wear the same flannel shirtwell That is GOING HOME. (See Music Video- DVD) my youngest daughter plays the part when I was younger, and my voice student plays the part when I get a little older, and the part of my mom and dad are played by my managers Cleo and John. In Fact, Cleo and John are also in the Here Goes Nothing DVD and the Outlaw Blues DVD so if you see all three DVDs you can play Wheres Waldo and look for them. 7. GET YOUR HANDS OFF MY FEELINGS This is just a play on Words and Feelings

8. ONE OF THE BOYS This was written by Kent Blazy and Phil Barnhart and is about being a tomboy when you're young but finally growing up all girl. 9. HERE GOES NOTHING Written by Joe Collins and Michael P. Heeney. This song is about jumping into love The Touched By An Angel director Michael Schaertl directed my Music Video. He was from NYC and thought the best raging river to film would be Niagara Falls. So yes, we filmed this in NYC in the winter. I had double pneumonia and it was 40 below zero and one day there were 53 mph winds. The rainbow scene was filmed out on the ice formation by Niagara Falls. I looked way down in the ice back by the mountain and asked what the metal thing was They answered that was the ramp that was built so people could look over the falls We were standing clear out on mere ice. That was scary 10. LOVE HAS A MIND OF ITS OWN this was written by Donna Summers, Bruce Sudano and Michael O'Martian. PATTI MINER BIO Patti Miner is a former Mrs. Utah-America.
