As the self-appointed Mayor of Oak Cliff, Texas, Suave commands the stage and microphone like a no non-sense moderator at a town hall meeting. Hovering over most at an intimidating 61, his immense presence is immediately felt as soon as he walks into a room, but Suave prefers a much lighter role, often opting for a more comical and entertaining approach to life and conveying his lyrical messages. It works because he is such a character. Suave is a hood celebrity. At only twenty-two years old, he has the appeal and charisma of a larger-than-life superstar that hasn't lost touch with ordinary people. Described by his peers as the life of the party, Suave is fast becoming a dominant force on the hip-hop music scene as a part of Major Moves Recordings Entertainment, LLC starting line up. With winning cuts like Suave Got The Hookup, The Next Big Thing, and 4 More Years, he just cannot lose as evidenced by his growing fan base and lively crowd response at shows. Suave hopes to one day be in a position to open the door for the next wave of street storytellers that are fast on his heels in Dallas. Well, if the bright torch he's carrying now is any indication, they'll have a well lit path to follow. Suave is fire! In a word, Young Don is a monster, not just due to his 6'4" stature but because his voice is as distinct and grimy as his own description of the world. Born and raised in the streets of Dallas, Texas, he's seen it all and prepared to cover the story on wax. Young Don is driven to literally fill a void in hip-hop that has grown wider with every new album release. Having said that, it helps that his phrases are conceptually creative and constructed and that he is indeed a true lyricist. At the ripe age of nineteen, Young Don has already mastered the art of rhyming but he is not arrogant, just convinced. He'll blow you away with his onstage persona as he sets it off alongside co-label mates also of Major Moves Recordings Entertainment, LLC. He relates to the struggle of the common man and hustler alike because he is street savvy, yet able to hold his own as a serious business man. Watch out for his tracks entitled Wild Out and Ends Nigg@ because he is an artist without compromise and coming to a stage near you. Young G is hot! No for real! I know you've heard it all before, but this time you won't be disappointed. Young G spits out lyrics in rapid fire succession like a semi-automatic weapon with an extra long, limited edition magazine and no safety latch! He delivers every time; holding your attention because he is versatile; switching up his flow without a moment's notice because the wind changed; begging the question which came first -- the track or the verse? That question has long faded from the hip-hop scene for some cause some just follow along with the track, but when Young G derails the train, you still wanna ride. He is confident enough to bring his own flava and powerful enough to bring his own energy. He does. Please believe it. A native of Houston, Texas, Young G takes a straight forward approach to life. Often, he writes about everyday life situations and even the experiences of his peers in such a way that the listener gets amped and is instantly snatched into his world. All this from a nineteen-year-old? Yeah. For Young G this journey began over four years ago and he is serious about his craft. Now Young G has joined forces with Major Moves Recordings Entertainment, LLC to record his first single entitled Need You To Blow. What will he say next? Inquiring fans want to know. Get on board. Young G is a winner! A.P. FENEKE INC. Are you ready? Are you sure? Just checking, because Mr. AP is and if youre not paying attention, he will sneak up on you with his hypnotizing tone and whisk you away to a gangsters paradise without proper notice and no change of pimp clothes or goblet. Im talking about playa vocals. Even his speaking voice has a melodious quality with an O.G. twist that easily translates into his smooth delivery style over the perfect riding track. Hear him once and Mr. AP will be the one you reach for to slide in the cd changer just to crawl up the block on your jordans or 22-inch wheels. At twenty-two years of age, precision is the name of his game and he plays it well. Mr. AP is so in-the-zone in the recording booth that he usually does it in one take, but whos counting? Next track please. Still, dont let the smooth taste fool ya. Hes coming straight out of Houston, Texas and he knows how to mix it up and when he flips it, its perfect timing cause youre done on one side. On stage he is fluid in motion and while youre moving from side to side, hell be dancing all the way to the bank. Why? Im telling you. Mr. AP is a sure thing. Be on the lookout for Mr. APs new single Beautiful Day to be released in conjunction with Major Moves Recordings Entertainment, LLC.
