They're known for their diverse songwriting, memorable melodies, and lyrics that offer a candid view into the soul. You'll be mesmerized with their trademark harmonies and Marie's rich, resonant voice. "The Healer of Our Hearts" is a beautifully recorded album of inspirational and contemporary songs filled with a sense of hope love and faith. You'll find your heart connecting with the upbeat groove of "Indefinitely" which explores the idea of never ending love. The title track "The Healer of Our Hearts" tells us: "Mercy runs deep, He has been where we are, He will be the Healer of Our Hearts." In The Pearsons' live shows you'll find them on the keyboards, guitar, and mandolin. The Pearsons have written and recorded on many CDs and their work can be found on projects by Target, Irving Music (former publishing arm of A&M), Deseret Book, and Frog and Scorpion Records. Larry is both a writer and arranger of numerous commercial jingles as well as songs on PBS. Michael McLean fans will remember Marie's original recording of "Gentle" as well as "Lullaby For Me" on his most recently released album. You may hear Marie's familiar voice on many national voice overs. Others share the enthusiasm for The Pearsons including former A&M Records president Gil Friesen who said "Marie Pearson has a wonderful, natural voice. Her sound reminds me of Karen Carpenter." In addition to their four CDs, The Pearsons have several songs on compilations discs from Deseret Book ("His Love volume 2" and the youth CD "Whatever It Takes".) Sounds of Zion newly released youth CD "Believe" features their music. Their song about the birth of Marie's third child on 9/11/01 entitled "Rebecca's Song" was placed on Frog and Scorpion Records compilation CD "One Nation Under God".
