Details: Bishop Wayne hails from St. Croix, in the beautiful U.S. Virgin Islands. At the age of 9, he moved with his father to St. Petersburg, Florida and made the short trek to sister city, Tampa where he now resides. He grew up listening to the varied sounds of Bob Marley, Maxi Priest, Shabba Ranks, Mary J. Blige and New Edition. These influences pushed him to create his own brand of alternative R&B. He defines his music as having no limits or boundaries. Writing about intimate affairs such as relationships, his music evokes a common spirit for his listeners to overcome their own personal issues. His love for music was sparked when he began performing backup vocals for his fathers band, an experience that led to writing and performing Dance Hall music. Writing and performing for several local acts in St. Croix was just the beginning of his musical accomplishments. To date, his musical distinctions include live radio interviews, fundraiser concerts, television shows and being selected to write and perform a jingle for the world renowned Tampa Bay Devil Rays baseball team. A local Virgin Islands tragedy prompted him to write a song about stopping the violence and further endeavors have led Bishop to use his music to assist with such humanitarian efforts as hurricane relief and an anti-drug campaign. Bishop was once signed with Darkside Productions, owned by Keith Howard, a sister company of Arista and BMG Records, Inc. Two of Bishops songs made #1 on The Top 40 list on New Artist Radio (NAR), an internet radio station, based out of Salt Lake City, Utah, while simultaneously being played throughout the U.S., Europe, Canada and Australia. As a result of his songs #1 status, Bishop was invited by NAR to perform live at their annual awards show, where he walked away with the New Artist R&B Artist of the Year award. In mid 2005, Bishop entered a contest with the Recording Academy, Florida Chapter and was named a semi-finalist in the Florida GRAMMY Showcase. He placed in the top 35 of more than 230 entrants. Currently, he performs live regularly at local venues in Tampa and has made special appearances on The Papa Sean Show, at the Zephyrhills Live concert and as an opening act for Ryan Shaw at The Orpheum, Ybor City. Bishop has just released his first, full-length album entitled Im Just Me. The albums singles are receiving airtime on local stations WMNF 88.5 and WZPH 96.7, WSLR 96.5 Sarasota as well as the internet stations, On The Horizon and The Colorado Wave.
