Details: Hailing from her stomping grounds of Raleigh, North Carolina, Catie King grew up listening to music constantly; saturated in sound and instrumentation. Taking piano lessons in her early childhood years, Catie began sneaking into her brother's room when he wasn't home to play his guitar. Catie quickly learned the basics by following the chord and string notes that were placed in a guitar lesson book. These experiences inspired Catie to produce her innovative, blended sound of Rock-Acoustic. Influenced heavily by industry mainstems who include Colbie Caillat, John Mayer, Secondhand Serenade, Michelle Branch and Ryan Cabrera, Catie creates lyric-driven music that is stripped to its simplest form. Her music conveys an introspective message that defines her personal feelings, emotions and experiences as a eighteen-year-old young woman and artist. Catie worked with well renown producer Dick Hodgins to create her debut EP, Between The Lines. Catie King finds comfort and solace in creating records that are complex in content, and yet simple enough to be relatable to the masses. With a soul of determination, and a life complete with undying support, Catie King will carve a niche on the music scene as a singer, songwriter, and true inspiration of her generation. Tags: pop
