Rocktronic 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Instrumental Rock, JAZZ: Weird Jazz Details: God TV Surfing The Remote Controls Self-released A mesmerizing swath of richly textured instrumental pop, local musician and Inner State Studio head honcho Casey Friedman, performing under the moniker God TV, has unleashed "Surfing The Remote Controls," a 10-track excursion through candy-coated psychedelia and trippy, theatrical soundscapes. Cuts like the darkly gorgeous "Grandpa," the Brian Eno-influenced "Smooth As A ..." and the affecting "Sayonara Means Goodbye" place this release on the short list of the year's best. Assisted by keyboardist Derek Brown and guitarists Joe Wilkie, Ben Kennedy and Matt Neighbors, Friedman, who composed and performed the bulk of "Surfing," is not only doing his part to bolster the local scene; he's also adding much to it musically.
