Details: Hans Christian is a German cellist, composer, music producer, recording artist, and sound engineer. He is co-founder and the creative force behind the music group RASA which has released six CDs since 2000. RASAs devotional and elegant sound has earned Hans an international reputation as talented composer, performer, and producer. In addition to RASA, Hans has participated in many musical projects, spanning various styles. He has lived in the United States since 1982 and is currently based in Door County, WI. His latest CD, Sancta Camisia, was recorded live inside the famous Chartres Cathedral in France and features Hans Christian on solo cello. The CD sets a contemplative and devotional mood with energetic passages, as well as gregorian chant type repetitive melodic structures. The music is improvised, yet clearly structured and well recorded with lots of ambience.
